

Penellettes.

Quite a number of cattle were on the Square Thursday evening, and we presume the shipping business has opened.

An Indiana Sunday school man writes to a Bible firm in New York: "Send me on some Sunday school papers and books. Let the books be about pirates and Indians as far as possible."

The Knoxville Iron Company Works commenced operations again yesterday, after a rest of nine weeks—that is, the beaters only have gone to work, but it is thought that the puddlers will also be at work in a few days.

When a Chicago policeman goes behind a lumber pile and shoots three balls through his hat, and runs up to headquarters and tells about his adventure with the Benders of Kansas, they raise his pay on the spot. Merit is always rewarded in Chicago.

A lawyer once asked a hotel-keeper the following question: "If a man gives you a hundred pounds to keep for him, and dies, what do you do? Do you pray for him?" "No, sir," replied the landlord, "I pray for another just like him."

A lad who borrowed a dictionary to read, returned it after he got through, with the remark: "It was very nice reading, but it somehow changed the subject werry often." It was his sister that thought the first ice cream she tasted was a little touched with the frost.

Chattanooga Commercial: "Probably more wheat, and of better quality, changes hands yesterday than on any previous day of the season. The flat boats from Clinch and Powell's rivers were largely loaded with it. Martin & Brothers purchased 4,000 bushels of very superior quality at $1.00. Corn brought $1.2 cents on the wharf, and oats 98."

On Thursday the 4th inst., two Loudon county citizens named Langford and Gaston, while working in a field, four miles from Loudon, had a fight, which resulted in Gaston being killed. No one was present, and Langford's statement is, that Gaston was advancing on him with a drawn knife, threatening his life, and in self defense he killed him with a hoe.

"What are you after, my dear?" said a grand-mother to a little boy, who was sliding along a room and casting furtive glances at a gentleman who was paying a visit. "I am trying, grandma, to steal papa's hat out of the room without letting the gentleman see it; he wants him to think he's out."

"How much is your stick candy?" inquired a boy of a candy dealer on Tuesday. "Six sticks for five cents," "Six sticks for five cents, eh?" Now, hem me see. Six sticks for five cents, five for four cents, four for three cents, three for two cents, two for one cent, and one for nothing! Ill take one!" And he walked out, leaving the candy man in a state of bewilderment.

Bristol News: "This a. m. at 7 o'clock, the mercury in Bristol, stood exactly at zero. This is the coldest by five degrees we have had this winter."

—Among the many cases of affliction, due to the unnatural weather of the season, few are worthy of more sympathy than that of our friend, Mr. Isaac B. Mumpower, three miles east of town. He has eight children, and five of them are seriously ill of pneumonia. Dr. Ensor is attending them."

An industrious citizen arose a few mornings ago, while the festive lark was still singing, and with a tin bucket under his arm went to the barn to milk the family cow. It was dark and rainy, and in fumbling about for old Brindle, he got into the wrong pew and began to pull the off mule of his wagon team. He can't remember now which side of the roof he went out at, but his recollection of sight- ing on the picket fence is very vivid. He expects the bucket down in a few days.

Chattanooga Commercial: Some large lots of corn, of excellent quality, were purchased yesterday on the wharf at 81 cents, and wheat at prices ranging from 75 to 95 cents, according to quality. Only the very finest quality of wheat would now bring $1.—The R. M. Bishop arrived yesterday at noon, from Knoxville, bringing about 5,000 bushels of grain, some miscellaneous freight and a number of passengers. She bursted one of her cylinders on her way down, which is being repaired by Messrs. Webster & Marks, and will be ready for use this morning. She leaves to-day for Alabama.

New Market News: The health of this locality is seriously impaired by the sudden changes in the weather. Pneumonia is quite prevalent, and some member of almost every family in town suffers either from cold or pneumonia.—Friday last, J. G. Hosking came near meeting with a serious accident. In company with Peter Ellmore, he went out hunting, and when about three miles from town, as he was crossing a fence, he accidentally slipped, striking both hammers of his gun (double-barreled shot gun) against a rail, causing both barrels to go off at once. The gun was still in his hand, the muzzles of which were so near his face that the shock stunned him considerably, and the powder burned his face smartly, and he has not yet recovered from a partial deafness caused by the explosion.

The other night a late pedestrian passing a certain house about 10 o'clock, saw a man drop from a window and heard smothered cries within. He seized the man for a burglar, but to his surprise he soon found that he had the owner of the house in his clutches, when, in explanation of his action in arresting him, he said: "Well, it looked suspicious to see you drop out of a window in that way." "Oh!" replied the man, heaving a sigh, "when the old woman gets her dinner up, faint particular about what I take to get out of the house."

The young woman spoken of hereafter, after repeated efforts to leave her child in Knoxville, was compelled, by the police, to take it with her on her homeward bound journey yesterday evening. She had pursued some woman to take care of it for her, but the police interfered in this arrangement, when she made another effort by wrapping the child up in a bundle and leaving it in a room, and starting to the train with a bundle of clothing wrapped up like a child, but the trick was discovered by the Chief Marshal, and she at last started home with the baby—the child.

East Tennesseean: We learn that Dave White, formerly of this county, was seriously injured the other day, whilst engaged in a difficulty with some party or parties near Wartburg. Several wounds were received in the head from metal knuckles.—V. H. McAfee, who was lodged in jail a few weeks ago, upon the charge of robbing a jewelry store at Rockwood, proved to be an escaped convict from Cherry O'Connor & Co.'s gang on the railroad. He was delivered up Saturday morning, and taken to Nashville. It appears that this enterprising thief was a member of the Landerburg gang, who committed several robberies in this county some time ago.

Mineral Remedies Superseded.

All except those who refuse to be convinced by the most positive proof, admit the infinite superiority of Hostetter's Stomach Bitter to the mineral remedies which it has to a very great extent superseded, and which, it is to be hoped, for the sake of the human stomach, may eventually be abandoned altogether. The Bitterman is a most potent corrective of disorders of the liver, stomach and kidneys. Habitual constipation, dyspepsia, bowel complaints, and the numerous and chronic diseases of the human system, are, in every instance not only relieved but cured, by a persistent and systematic course of this sovereign remedy. In eminent and tedious intermitting fevers may be safely given, as a cold and mild tonic. Physical vigor is increased, and the complexion improved. Secure it by recourse to the Hit er.
